DISCUSSION

1. Pastor Mike explained, "The Bible is not a collection of stories—of morality lessons and inspirational anecdotes. It is a story. It tells us about God, his plan to rescue and redeem us and to restore his kingdom.

a. Do you view the Bible primarily as a story?

*b. How would you describe the narrative arc or major themes of the Bible story? If your group is having trouble with this, watch and discuss this video.

2. On Sunday we sang "All Creatures of Our God and King." Read the excerpt below:

*All creatures of our God and King
Lift up your voice and with us sing,
Alleluia! Alleluia!
Thou rising moon, in praise rejoice,
Ye lights of evening, find a voice!
Thou flowing water, pure and clear,
Make music for thy Lord to hear,
O praise Him! Alleluia!*

a. What does this song suggest about Creation?

b. Do you see yourself as a creature of God? How would it look for you to "Make music for thy Lord to hear"?
