INTRO

If you could change one law in our country, which one would you change?
(Bonus—what do you think your answer would be if you lived in China?)

DISCUSSION

1. Mike talked about three different responses to the law.

- a. Reject the law (new atheists etc)
- b. Replace the law (follow the law that seems right to you)
- c. Rejoice in the law (let it lead you to Christ)

How does this breakdown strike you? Do you think there are other categories he could have covered?

2. Talk about a time in your life when you might have been in categories of 1 or 2 (or perhaps you're there now). What moved you from one to another?

3. Read Psalm 19: 7-11. Respond to the Psalmist's passion for the law. How does this apply to our attitude towards the law today?

4. Bonus: Mike mentioned that the Westminster Confession recognizes three purposes of the law: it helps individuals know the right way; it creates healthier societies; and it helps us see that we fall short and need a savior. What are your responses to that?

PRAY
