Colossians 2:8-23

DISCUSSION

1. Can you think of a time in your life when you thought you knew what you were doing, then quickly figured out that you didn't?
2. Paul addressed "hollow and deceptive philosophies" with the church at Colosse. Can you think of a philosophy like this in our day? What would Paul address that might depend on "human tradition and the elemental spiritual forces of the world"?
3. In what ways do you find yourself counting on your own works to save you? How does trusting in Christ move you away from that?
4. Can you think of a personal example of when you tried to live your life without Christ and found it "shackling and treacherous" as Luke suggests?
