DISCUSSION

1. How would you describe your current prayer life? In what ways would you like to see it grow or change?
2. How do you think our speech reflects our spiritual health? Can you think of examples from your own life?
3. What does "speaking the truth in love" look like in practice, especially when discussing controversial topics?
4. Which aspect of Christian community (staying connected, encouragement, accountability, or reconciliation) do you find most challenging? Why?
5. What does it mean to you to be "on mission" as a Christian in your daily life? What challenges do you face in living this out?
6. Reflecting on the three signs of spiritual growth discussed (prayer, speech, and Christian community), which area do you feel God is calling you to focus on right now? What's one practical step you can take in that direction?
